Any important event that occurred on February 16, 1973 seemed insignificant by comparison to William Ernie's arrival. As the youngest, he was a joyous blessing to his family possessing happy and fun-loving attributes. Early years at New Zion Baptist Church, helped formulate and inspire his respect for the Trinity; which resulted in the acceptance of Christ in his life. An avid usher, he assisted with the elderly and church engagements. His loving, playful spirit kept him "close" with siblings: Vann Oliver, Ila Rochelle, Endeé Cheree and Isha Love. He attended Flint Christian and Foss Avenue Schools with his siblings and did very well academically.

As a result, he became a mortgage loan officer that finalized home purchases and home refinancing closings in the Seattle, Washington area. As a resident of Bellevue, Washington; he was in mid stages of obtaining his own company as a subsidiary LLC of Whole Foods Corporation. Politically inclined, he attended presidential functions and helped in the community. Ernie was a loyal campaign member of the Washington State Democrats. He donated his time with children in the area and attended To God Be the Glory House of Worship.

His first joy was the love he had for family. His acts of love and kindness were insurmountable. Complete adoration was how he felt about being a father to his daughter and an uncle to his nieces and nephews. An undying love was proclaimed for his parents. He loved everyone due to his positive and magnetic personality. A beautiful, vibrant, positive and dynamic life legacy is treasured forever more by: father & “best friend,” Rev. William E. Whitaker I and mother, Sis. Ina C. Whitaker “his bookie bear”: He leaves to carry on his legacy: daughter; Imani (Kevin): fiancée; Jenny Saechao: siblings; Vann, Ila, Endee (Greg), Isha and Jeffrey: nieces; Bianca Reina and Raquéel Alón: nephews; Brian Keith, Nicholas Abri and Derrick Lorenzo I: great-nephews; Dailyn Alan and Derrick Lorenzo II: grandmother; Helen Whitaker: special sons; Marcus, Emilio, his “namesake” William, and Eddie: lifelong devoted sister, Velinda Outland: his loving brothers by his other loving mothers; Kevin, Reonce, Rob, Beasley, Marcos, Jeff, Joe, and Bola: spiritual parents; Rev. Dr. Herbert J. & Diane Carey: special mothers, Ms. Elma and Mrs. Betty: several aunts, uncles, and cousins from paternal/maternal lineage. He was preceded in death by grandparents; Clyde, Olive and Calvin: two brothers by other mothers, Greg and Archie: and special mother; Ms. Bess.

Condolences to Rev. Whitaker , his wife, family and friends of William II. I wondered about the Whitakers throughout the years. I have not seen you all since 1974 in Flint, at New Zion Baptist Church. I remembered the Easter Play one Sunday at church when Ila and Endee said their speeches. The fond memories of them. Amen

William Ernie, as children we remained so close. There wasnt a time that I can recall when our Mother's children were not gathered together, sharing time, laughter, love and always music!!! As we grew older there came distance from the task, troubles, decisions/choices that we each made along our seperate journies in this Life. Although I feel the pain from your transition to a place we who remain here in this world; have yet to enter into. William Ernie no amount of time nor measure of distance shall ever remove the fondest memories I have of you of us as children! To God Be All the Glory Forever & Ever Amen! My compassion, sympathy, Love as well prayers are extended to all of my family Aunt Ina

Uncle William, Van, Sissy, Indie and Isha to your daughter, fiance' nephews and nieces! Always God Bless each of you giving you strength, increased wisdom comfort and the true peace of God which surpasses all our understanding in Emmanuel's name Amen!

Ernie, I hope you enjoyed Greg's song. It was very touching and reminded us all that you have one more river to cross. You're now reaping the reward of being home with Jesus. Though we're sad that you're not physically here with your loved ones, there is much joy knowing that you're with the Lord. Thank You Jesus!

Rev. and Sis. Whitaker (Ila, Ina, Vann, & Endee): I am so very sorry for your loss. I have faith that you know God knows what He was doing when He called Ernie home. I pray that the Lord will give you the strength, courage, and joy that is needed to get through your moments of grief. It saddens my heart to know that you're feeling sorry, as I feel it too. I pray that Ernie consistently sends you a sign daily to offer you relief to know that in spite of not being here with you, he is happier than he could ever imagine. I love you all.

Ernie, I miss you so, so much. I'm missing the phone calls, missing that great voice of yours. We are missing you at church, your church family talks about you every time we are together. Your little friend is still talking about you, how you guys would run to take the garbage out. As your spiritual mom you will always be in my heart, your dad talks about you every day. I love you Ernie, we will all be together by and by. I know you are happy and having a great time with Jesus.

Ernie, I miss you so much brother. I miss talking to you, miss your advise and just shooting the breeze about what's going on in our lives. I've talked about you to friends and family many times for years. Ever since I met you that fateful day of the car accident in 2005 you've always been a great friend to me. I'm sorry it's taken me this long to write to you, I've been struggling so hard to wrap my head around this but I still can't yet. I'm so thankful I saved a couple of your voice mails, I've listened to them thirty times or more. I cannot even begin to tell you how many times I've re-lived that moment and wish something, anything happened differently to change the course of that night. We'll see each other again one day my friend. I'll always miss you Ernie.

“ Oh Ernie....I almost didn't come to this site, the pain is way too fresh. My brother. My kids Uncle Ernie. My friend to the End. When I got sick, you stole a hospital visitor pass and tried to come see me. When I wasn't there, you came to my house. You hugged me, you cried with me, you supported me, you got mad as hell with me. I miss you every minute. You were irreplaceable in my personal life, and my professional career. Everywhere I turn, you are there. I want your family, especially your daughter, to know how much you were loved in Seattle. He literally knew everyone, and everyone loved him! He was the glue that held all of us together, through thick and thin, even when we didn't want to! He always spread love, tolerance, and his dedication to his faith. Every day, a call or a text. Every day, we would discuss both of our problems and work things out! I almost got sick again when I heard this news, and then I realized this was the last thing you would have wanted. Just a few weeks ago, you said "it's ok Vik, there is SUNSHINE ahead!" and I always wondered how you kept your chin up all the time. Now I know. You are dancing in the sunshine with your maker. I miss you so very much. Until we meet again....RIP and my deepest sincere condolences to his family for this loss.

“ This wonderful man was a dear friend to me for 19 years. He had a huge heart as big as his smile. He loved my family, and always was uplifting. He frequently made me laugh. He could talk for hours. He was kind and generous. If you knew him you loved him. I'm gonna miss hearing his voice so very much. He would remind me of the good things in life. He would compliment me when I felt low until he made me see qualities in myself again. He could make me smile with just the right words. He was so friendly to everyone. His positive energy was shared with everyone too. This is not goodbye, but see you later. Missed from this side but never forgotten. Rest in Peace my friend.

he knew everyone by name and had a story to share with me about each of them. He called me his daughter and when he met my bestfriend Ashley loved her just the same and had so much fun introducing us as such. I'm going to miss his encouraging words and the surprise voicemails or texts reminding me of my value to those around me, to keep those I love close and to treat everyday as a new opportunity to do something fulfilling. If you took the time to read this in honor of my Uncle Ernie I ask that you please take the time to send someone a message or voicemail and let them know that they mean something, that you're grateful to have them in your life or just send them something you know will

“ When I was pregnant with our daughter, Ernie would rub my feet, all the time, and he would rub my stomach and talk and sing to our daughter. He did ALOT to try and keep me comfortable. He would even carry me upstairs at his parents house until I got too BIG. I'm sure I irritated him at times, but he never showed it. I LUV YOU AND THANK YOU

“ I am so fortunate to have had the opportunity to know Ernie. He was one of the kindest and most compassionate men I have ever met. Ernie always called me "mother" and would contact me on every holiday to say he was thinking of me. He knew how much it meant to me to hear from him as my son passed away 11 years ago. He had the most wonderful laugh and smile which I will never forget and miss so much. Rest in peace Ernie - Love you
