Willie Lee Maynie, fondly known as "Willa" was born May 10, 1945, in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of the late Johnnie Jones and Jennie Sullivan. A proud native of Flint, she grew up in the historic St. John Street neighborhood where she developed her love of roller skating at the St. John Center. She attended Flint public schools, Mott Community College and Hurley School of Nursing. Willa met the love of her life, Tyrone Arthur Maynie, while attending a high school dance. Willa graduated from Flint Central H.S. class of 1963 and on February 9, 1964, Willa and Tyrone married and began to raise a loving family.

While working retail for Maas department store, Willa's mother-in-law encouraged her to explore a career in health care, joining her as a transcriber for Hurley Hospital in 1971. This shift opened the door to her true calling, as a nurse. She obtained her LPN license and enjoyed her passion until she retired from Hurley in 2003.

In her spare time, Willa enjoyed watching classic movies, tending to her houseplants, assembling bookshelves, and creating beautiful Christmas village displays. Willa lived a full life serving others. Even after retiring, she continued her dedicated service at New Zion Missionary Baptist church as the president of the Nurses Guild, president of Mission, Sunday School Teacher, Vacation Bible school teacher and many other roles she embraced.

Willa Lee Maynie leaves to cherish her memory: husband Tyrone Arthur Maynie of Flint; daughter, Sarah (Charles) Cross; grandchildren, Qiana Perry, Keosha Brooks, Tanisha Maynie, Jaquan Sullivan, Kianna Walker and Trevor Cross; 6 great-grandchildren; 6 great-great-grandchildren; 2 sisters, Reola (Henry) Brooks and Ida Buchanon; brother, Rev. “ Awww. I remember Mrs. Mayor from when I was a child. Me and Tricia were best friends, was over there early in the morning before school so I could hang out with the monkey yes, they had a monkey. I would go over after school and stay the longest time. Man the whippings I got because of the Maynie house. She was always so sweet to me. Rest In Peace Mrs. Maynie.

“ I am one of the many people who had the experience of being trained by Willa when I hired in at Hurley. She was kind and considerate and patient with the new trainees. She was also great to work with during my HMC years. Her smile could light up the unit and her humor was infectious. I never had a bad day working with Willa Maynie. My sincere condolences to her family. 🙏🙏🙏
