“ *Our thoughts and Prayers are with you.
May the Lord keep and strengthen you.*

Kirksey Family - April 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ *To: Annette and the children, Once again God has saw fit to take another one of us home. Billy is at peace now... No more suffering, no more pain. Nette God's peace be with you. Eric do the things your Dad taught you. You'll be better for it. And to the girls all of you were his little princesses and all of you made him proud. When you find it take time to read John 14:27.
God Bless You Family.
Our Love,
Sandra and Family*

“ Our hearts were saddended to hear of the loss of Billy. During our time of employment at Buick Motor Division and coming and going our of the gates in 36, 5,4 Billy was always congenial, smiling and helpful (even when I forgot my badge - smile). He was a joy to see every day and a very nice gentleman.

“ In My Fathers house there are many mansions. One of them belong to Bro. Moore.

To the family. Ps 121:1-2, I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from which cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth.

God's Blessings,

“ I became acquainted with Mr. Moore through my deceased son, Terry. He ventured off into some trouble and met with Mr. Moore. Mr. Moore called my husband and I and we responded. I will never forget the manner in which he handled the situation. He was loving, kind, considerate, and full of wisdom. My husband and I later became good friends of Mr. Moore's. We will all miss him, and his jokes as he was one of a kind, and kindest one of all.

“ Mr. Moore worked at the last two schools that I attended. He was a blessing to my soul everyday. I encourage you all to be blessed and trust God during this test. And know that this is working together for your good, Romans 8:28.
