“ I remember when I was a little girl and you would come to my grandma house and sit on the front porch singing a chant that you had creatively come up with. That chant will forever live in our hearts. You will be missed dearly. Your Birmingham family loves you. Rest well Cousin Willie Lee, tell the others hello for us.

I miss you too Uncle Will Lee. You are loved so much by your family and you loved us back. I can picture the big smile on your face and you never complained. I want to imagine you in heaven now with my Dad and my Mom and All of your brothers, sisters, cousins, in laws, just everyone that has gone on before us. That’s where you are. Can’t stop the tears but will think about when we will all be together again where we never have to leave each other ever again. I love you so much. 😭
