“ Daddy,

We find comfort in knowing that Mom has left this world on to join you and the rest of the family upstairs in Heaven. We know that you will take good care of her while she is there as she keeps warm in the light of your eternal love. We will always remember how strong your love was for one another while you were both here. As you wished and desired before you were prematurely “taken” away from us, we have done the very best that we could to take care of Mom during your absence from this world. She was loved by many and cared for up to her very last day in this world. Now you are reunited again....in love and you will both be our forever guardian angels in this life. Thank you Lord for the blessings and for the time we had with both of our parents here on earth. We are forever grateful for every second of their existence in our lives and we will rejoice when we are finally with them...in Heaven someday. RIP Mommy and Daddy. Love you both...always and forever more. (11/1/2025)

“ Tomorrow (10/24) is your birthday Daddy. I wish you were here so that we could celebrate in your presence. You are so missed. We love you so much and miss you terribly. We know you visit us often because you are always sending cardinals to my home office window. I smile whenever you send your message of love and light to remind us that you are always with us. Tomorrow we will celebrate you as we do every year. I know you will be around and I cannot wait to feel your aura around us. Full of laughter and love. Happy Heavenly birthday! 🎂
