“ My condolences goes out to you and your family for the loss of your dear love one. The Bible gives us hope that soon all of this will be done away. I would like to share this scripture at Rev. 21:4- " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore, The former things have passed away. Also John 5: 25-28, Jesus gave us comforting assurance to mankind. "The hour is coming, and it is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God at this, because the hour is coming which all those in the memorail tombs will hear his voice abd come out." So there is a resurrection hope for your love one.

Please take comfort knowing that God is love....1 John 4:8. He wants you to be happy. He knows that the resurrection of our dead loved ones is essential to our happiness and to the undoing of all the harm and suffering that have come upon our families. I grieve with you today and yet we know, and please rest assured, that your love one is in Jehovah God's memory. There will be happier times soon because of this resurrection hope.

“ Dear Williams family,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. The “Hearer of prayer” promises to give holy spirit to those who sincerely ask for it at Psalms 65:2. It helps me to pray for strength, and to rely on friends and family when I’m grieving, and I hope it helps you through this most difficult transition.(Phillipians4:6) Death will soon be “swallowed up forever” and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)
