“ Hello,

*My name is Pamela Traeye. I just wanted to take this time to offer my condolences to your family. The death of a child brings out emotions and questions in us that no one can pretend to sympathize with. I just wanted to let you know that God did not want your child to pass away and in due time, "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces..." See, God will do away with death. Jesus offers us further hope of a resurrection at John 5: 28, 29. He states: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Jesus resurrected many children back to life as mentioned in the bible and like those parents you too will be beside yourself "with great ecstasy." - Mark 5:42, Luke 8:56. There will be a day when Jehovah will provide relief from the pangs of death as mentioned at Rev 21:3, 4, "And he will wipe our every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Please, if you want to learn more about God's promise of doing away with death, feel free to contact me via email. “ Love is stronger than death even though it can't stop death from happening, but no matter how hard death tries it can't separate people from love. It can't take away our memories either. In the end, life is stronger than death.

“ I can feel your pain because I lost a nephew at a young age but what keeps me going is being a Jehovah Witnesses and knowing that my nephew will be resurrection and one day having that chance of seeing him again. Rev 21:4 says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." So that is something I live and look forward to this old system of violence and no one having natural affection for one another will be done away with. I will keep you and your family in my prayers.

“ Ray,
I Love you and I'm going to miss you. You were always so respectful. I'm so glad that I was able to photograph you and spend some time with you in May. I know God will take care of you.

Deb,
Be strong and continue to pray. God will give you all the strength that you need and will be there to catch you when you fall. Let the tears fall and he will wipe those too. Tears are there to wash away some of the pain. I Love you and wish I could be there with you.

Love Cyndi

“ *To the family:
Look toward the hills from whence cometh your help. In times like these you need an anchor. In time God will reveal all the answers you need. Just know you are in my thoughts and prayers. God Bless.*
