I have watched this twice already. I am still at a loss for words. This is indeed a beautiful home going service. Yes, we are sad, but God. But God. But God. My Lord, keep this family, especially her Mother and Father. God, be that shoulder they will need from this day forward. Be a fence God. This family needs you. Much Love and prayers to you April and your family.

“ Dear Mitch, April, and Peggy,

We are so deeply sorry for the loss of Wynter. When we got the news, we just couldn't believe it. Our hearts are broken for you, and we wish we could be there to hold you right now. We're sending these flowers with all our love.

We keep thinking about all the times we were blessed to spend with Wynter—when we first met her in 2005, and then seeing her again in 2008, 2019, and at Grandma's funeral last year. She had this beautiful light about her, you know? She wasn't just family by relation—she was family in every way that mattered. Losing her this young just doesn't make sense, and we know the pain you're carrying is unimaginable.

We want you to know that we're here for you, even from a distance. We know it feels impossibly dark right now, but somehow, some way, there will be light again. And Wynter's spirit—that brightness she brought to every room—that stays with us forever.

It brings us some peace knowing that Grandma Willa and Grandpa Elmer Hawkins have their arms around her now. We hope you can lean on each other, on their memory, and on everyone who loved Wynter during the precious time we had with her.

Mitch, April, and Peggy—we're praying for you and sending you all our love.

With heavy hearts but unending love,

Auntie Kim (Kimberly Marable) and Cousin Monte Ikel Marable
