“ Thinking way back when I would go to OCA in Waterford with Fots and Lin and watch them play ball with/against Yaf and Barry. And almost 20 years later he was the same nice person when I stopped by Friday's to unwind. What a wonderful guy he is. Praying peace takes over his family during this hard time.

“ My brother and sisters have been meeting at Fridays almost every Friday night as long as I can remember. When I moved back to Michigan this past summer, I begin to join them. We could not go this past Friday. We talked about it but changed our minds - decided it would be too hard. YaFeu went above and beyond for his customers. We thought of him as family. Our prayers are with all his family and friends. The Hill, Davis, and Covington families.

From my Great Uncle Herbert, to your Mom, Granma, Uncle Herbert to your Aunt Shirley, Cousin Walter, and Cousin Bessie... this is heartbreaking for all concerned. I love you cousin and will miss your humble demeanor, your laugh & smile. I will miss more than anything that we didn't get to spend much time together. I just pray that God blesses our family to stay connected. May God strengthen and comfort one and all in Jesus name Amen* ”
