“ Dearest White Family, My sympathies are with your family at this time. Our strength in times like these must come from God and our family. At Isaiah 25:8, God has made a comforting promise to "swallow" up death forever. Please know that he can not lie and your loved one will be remembered always.

“ We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Acts 24:15 and Revelations 21:3,4. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ No stain was on his little heart;
Sin had not entered there;
And innocence slept sweetly on;
That pale white brow so fair.
He was too pure for this cold earth;
Too beautiful to stay;
And so God's holy angel bore;
Our darling one away.

Yabbi,
You will be so sadly missed by all!!

“ *The Lord Looked down to earth on day,
and saw a couple there.
He said, "Now those two people make a lovely pair.
I have some spirits here with me that need a home on earth.
I think that I shall bless these folks with a precious spirits birth.*

*This baby, though, is just a Loan.
These are the terms My dears,
He may live there just sixty days or he may live for sixty years.
I hope you'll treat my spirit kindly while he's down on earth with you.
For when he comes back here to me he has a special job to do.*

“ My condolences to the family for your loss. During difficult times I have been comforted by Psalm 34:18, there it assures us that God is near to those who are broken at heart. I hope this helps you during this difficult time,
