“ To the family of Yolanda Jefferson-Calloway. I speak on behalf of the NW Class of 1991 when I say that she will be missed. We are all praying for your family during your time of sorrow. To the children, may God comfort you and keep you and give you peace. Right now there are no words but know that we are praying for angels to encamp around you and give you all that you need. Should you need anything at all, please know that we are just a phone call away. Again, may the Lord bless you and keep you.
