Yvonne Delores Gaither was born on May 1, 1957 in Flint, Michigan to Robert and Madeline Sanders Gaither. Growing up Yvonne "Vonne" attended Dailey Elementary, Dolan Junior High and graduated from Beecher High school in Flint, Michigan. She began college at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan in the fall of 1975. She majored in Industrial Operations & Systems (IOS) Engineering. She later decided to transfer to Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan to further her education. There she received her IOS degree and began working for General Motors (GM) in 1981. While working for GM she earned her MBA from The University of Detroit (now University of Detroit Mercy). After graduating she pulled out all of the stops, and gave herself a party to celebrate her achievement in typical Vonne style. She continued her employment with GM until economic conditions lead her to separate with them and start her own consulting firm, YDG Compositions. She loved working for herself and thought the opportunities open to her and her consulting firm were limitless.

"Vonne" was an active member of several engineering organizations including the Society of Minority Engineering Students, the Association of Black Engineers & Applied Scientists, Society of Women Engineers, and Wayne State University's Engineering Society and Alumni Association. She also loved to travel and play bid whist.

Yvonne is survived by: loving father, Robert Gaither, Sr.; siblings, Bonnie Gaither of St. Petersburg, Florida, Lloyd Gaither (Melinda) of Flint, Robert Gaither, Jr. of Grand Blanc, Michigan, Andre Gaither of San Diego, California, Marcus Gaither of Fredericksburg, Virginia and Gerald Gaither of San Diego, California. She also leaves her nieces, Danielle Gaither, Ashley Gaither, Mersadies Gaither and Kama Morgan; nephew, Idris Gaither; a host of other relatives, friends including special friends, Karen Livingston-Wilson, Jean Harris, Cathy Conway-Perrin, Denise Tookes, Lawrence (Lew) Washington and Earl Robinson.

“ My heart was so saddened to read about Yvonne’s passing. I have been remembering the great conversation we had at the picnic of our 40th Beecher Class of 75 reunion 4 years ago. So grateful to God for allowing that opportunity. Yvonne was such a beautiful spirit. Praying God’s comfort for your family.
