“ Hey "Ma" I know you're looking down at us because that's how solider's operate. You probably saying MA stop all that you know what "crying." I'm cool now! I know you are. You know.. one of many fondest moment's, were how we use to could not wait until the morning, seemed like we had a schedule. Ride our green machines, play in Mr. and Mrs. McCoy's cars, like we were driving..barely could see over the steering wheel. (LOL)
Tuffy and tonto?? barking.. Then we hit our teenage year's. Oh boy... our spots were Burger King, the park and Sunshine store. (we were always hungry) lol.. I wonder why? (he- he)
Soon woman-hood set in, and we became Mother's to the finest of children. Experienced our losses of our children father's. By the way, you are there now with the both of them! Greg finally got you. :)
If I never seen love, I seen it there. Ma, I have to go now, or I'll be back and forward. Love you my super-friend. Kiss Jesus for me.
